

High School & College Student Production Awards and Scholarship Announced by NATAS Ohio Valley Chapter

– For Immediate Release –

June 16, 2017 – The Ohio Valley Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences is proud to announce the 2017 David J. Clarke Memorial Scholarship and Student Production Award recipients.

Elizabeth Suarez, a senior at The Ohio State University Asbury University majoring in Journalism, will receive a $3000 grant, after being selected among those area college students who applied for the Ohio Valley Chapter’s annual David J. Clarke Memorial Scholarship.

The Student Production Award competition received entries from colleges, universities and high schools across the chapter’s 4-state region. Industry professionals judged and critiqued the entries which showcased a wide range of talent from these future broadcasters and media producers. (See attached pages for the complete list of recipients and honorable mentions.*)

“The work of our region’s students continues to impress the professionals who judge their submissions,” said Leslie Blackston-Favors, High School Student Awards Chairman for the Ohio Valley Chapter. Scholarship and College Student Awards Chairman Harrison Hove added “Across all the various media disciplines, the students of the Ohio Valley Chapter embody the standard of excellence that NATAS was founded to maintain. Congratulations to those who have been honored this year. We’re proud to have the opportunity to encourage and mentor these dynamic students.”

The awards will be presented during the chapter’s annual Emmy® Awards Gala, August 5, 2017 at the Lawrenceburg Event Center in Lawrenceburg, Indiana.

About the Ohio Valley Chapter

The Ohio Valley Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences was established in 1962. It is dedicated to the advancement of the arts and sciences of television and the promotion of creative leadership for artistic, educational and technical achievements within the television industry. The Chapter presents the prestigious and coveted Emmy® Award to television professionals in thirteen markets in Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia, honors industry trailblazers with the Silver and Gold Circle and makes scholarships available to students at colleges and universities throughout the region.
